Carol Ann McCarthy of Hudson has a BA in Music Education and has taught music in public and private schools in Cleveland and Boston. She has served as assistant to the Director of Education for the Cleveland Orchestra and has written music for children produced in schools and on public television. After joining The Letter Exchange, a national organization for letter writers, Carol Ann has written and received thousands of letters thereby developing her great love and passion for letter writing. She feels strongly that letter writing is not dead and hopes to awaken others to its pleasures. After all, a letter is personal, social, special and lasting!

Lunch will be served. Sandwiches provided by Regina and Jimmy Traynor of the West Side Market Café. Desserts by the Weymouth ladies.
